

What can Townswomen's Guilds offer me?

- Being part of an organisation with like-minded women, with opportunities to meet and make friends with members from across the UK either in person or on-line, learn new things and have fun!
- The opportunity to support, and gain support from, other women
- Belonging to a traditional Guild as well as a TIG (Townswomen's Internet Group) through our secure website or a TAG (Townswomen's Associate group) which is a less formal group
- Access to a variety of these groups for one affiliation fee, only paying for any local additional fees for each group
- The chance to speak out as part of an influential, forward-thinking organisation which is a voice for change both locally and nationally
- Having an influence on the TG national agenda
- Gaining access to campaign news through the Townswoman magazine and regular newsletters (e-mailed whenever possible, supporting our environmental campaign) which also contain a wide variety of interesting and informative articles
- Joining other members at the annual AGM and Carol Service in person, plus a variety of regular events online
- Taking part in competitions, challenges and exhibitions e.g. Discovery Award, AGM Exhibitions
- Joining virtual interest groups through the Members' Area eg drama, craft
- Access to an interactive web site www.the-tg.com and password access to the Members' Area with member only content including ideas for meetings, resources, pre-recorded talks and craft projects
- Improving IT skills by joining a virtual members group for beginners and those wanting to learn more about using IT, through our website
- Learning new skills to support our virtual community eg by setting up a TG interest group, becoming a virtual speaker
- Help with queries about TG from our team at TGHQ
- Support from National Trustees
- Insurance cover which includes attending and travelling to and from all TG meetings and events
- Support in setting up new Guilds, TIGs and TAGs, including help with advertising, posters, leaflets, ideas for what to do in meetings, use of Facebook, advertising etc so a new generation can experience the pleasure of belonging to the TG family.

Townswomen's Guilds, Gee Business Centre, Holborn Hill, Birmingham B7 5JR
Tel: 0121 326 0400 e-mail: contact@the-tg.com