

What is a TSG?

Townswomen's Students Guilds (TSG) are the little sister of Townswomen's Guilds (TG). TG is a national membership organisation whose founders were suffragists and who have united women in friendship and campaigned peacefully for women's rights since 1929.

TSG been designed to provide the same support, encouragement and social opportunity to women as TG in a university based context.

With only a few rules to follow, based on TG values, each TSG is free to plan their own revolution!

Why set up a TSG?

- Are the societies at your university not your thing?
- Do you feel strongly about equality and women's rights?
- Are you looking for a way to make like-minded friends?
- Do you think you could change someone's world by fundraising or volunteering?
- Do you want to do fun activities or be part of something outside normal university life that will look great on your CV?

Why not launch a Townswomen's Student Guild at your University?

How to set up a TSG

1. Get a group together at your University, explain the values of the TG and the benefits of being involved
2. Find individuals within the group to help with the key roles
3. Plan activities that the members will enjoy (Ask members for their suggestions)
4. Register as a new guild with TG by emailing contact@the-tg.co.uk
5. Visit website membership area for useful information and downloads
6. Register as a society with your university and ask for support with promotion
7. Create Facebook page so you can advertise events and vote on activities. (Resources and templates are available within your TG online membership account to help you set it up)
8. Advertise to increase membership around your university
9. Join the main TSG Twitter

How to run a TSG

Each guild will be ran by a group of leaders that will take on the following roles: -

- Chair
- Treasurer
- Events Manager
- Social Media Manager
- Inclusions Officer
